

New University After-Hours and Weekend Parking Permit

Stanford University transitioning to 24/7 parking enforcement.

Hospital lots and garages not affected.

No Change to Hospital Lots & Garages

If you need to park after-hours or on weekends, the best option for hospital staff is to park in one of the following areas, which are not affected by this change:

- ✓ S-9: Hoover Pavilion Garage: Enforced Monday - Friday, 6am - 4pm
- ✓ L-1A: Hoover Pavilion North Surface Lot (Lot 1A): Enforced Monday - Friday, 6am - 4pm
- ✓ L-9J: J Lot: Authorized badge access only, enforced 24/7
- ✓ S-11: Lucile Packard Children's Hospital Main Garage : Complimentary swing shift badge access available, entry between 1pm-4pm Monday-Friday only, enforced 24/7.
- ✓ S-12: Lucile Packard Children's Hospital West Garage : Complimentary evening access is available Monday - Friday starting at 4pm, and all day on weekends, enforced 24/7

If you are already parking in one of the above areas after-hours or on weekends, no action is required.

Night and Weekend Parking Enforcement in Stanford University Parking Lots & Garages Starts Monday, November 2nd, 2020

As of Monday, November 2, 2020, parking in Stanford University lots and garages will be enforced 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Current valid University parking permits ('A', 'C', 'Z', or Motorcycle) will be valid 24/7 at no additional charge, and no action is required for current permit holders.

Hospital staff without a current University parking permit who need to park on campus after 4pm on weekdays or any time on weekends have two options:

1. Park in a hospital lot or garage listed above
2. Apply for a courtesy parking permit to park in University lots after-hours and on weekends. This courtesy permit is valid in 'A', 'C', 'Z', and Motorcycle spaces, as well as the visitor spaces in Roth Way Garage, only between 4:01pm - 5:59am Monday - Friday, and all day on Saturday and Sunday. Please apply using the Stanford University virtual parking permit system: <https://stanford.nupark.com/v2/Portal/Login>

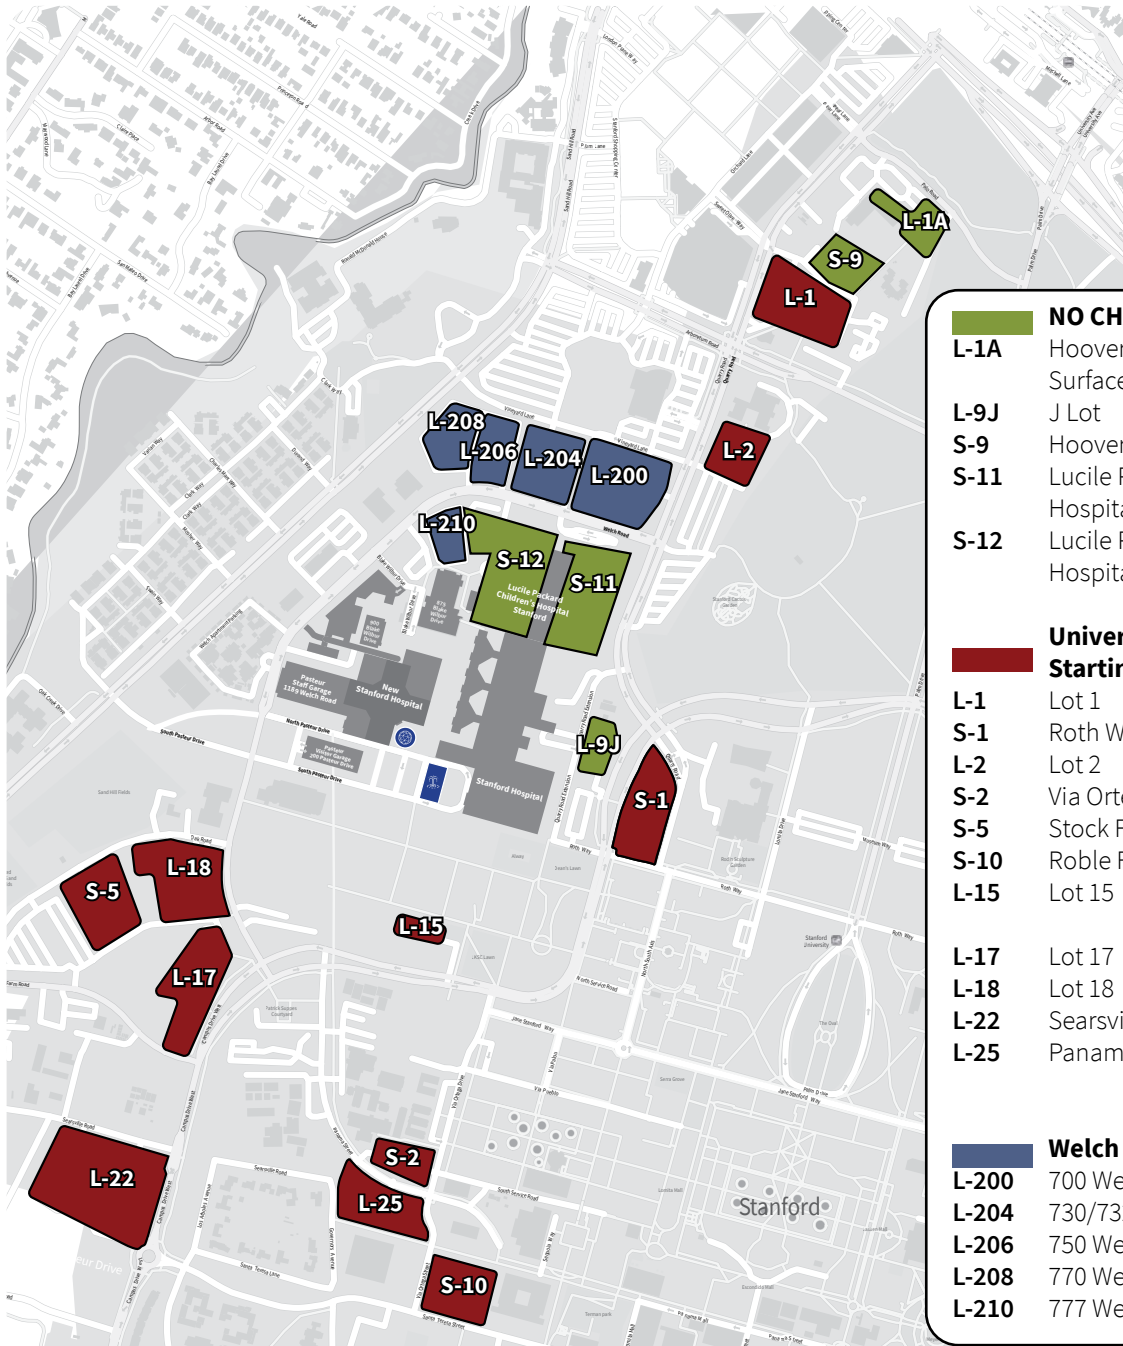

This change in University parking enforcement is intended to manage the number of non-essential visitors to the main campus, in accordance with California Department of Public Health COVID-19 guidance.
