NEW* Transportation Pop-Up

Staff can swing by the new temporary Transportation Pop-Up and explore sustainable transportation options. Patients and visitors parking at the Pasteur Visitor Garage can conveniently purchase 7-day parking passes for $35 at the Transportation Pop-Up space.

The Transportation Pop-Up space serves as a convenient hub for staff to learn about and sign up for sustainable transportation programs.

Patients and visitors parking at the Pasteur Visitor Garage can conveniently purchase 7-day parking passes for $35 at the Transportation Pop-Up space.

Check out the new temporary Transportation Pop-Up space located on North Pasteur Drive next to the shuttle stop and near the entrance to 500 Pasteur!

Outside, you'll find TVs with real-time shuttle info through TripShot and details of popular commuting programs. The pop-up also has a snazzy wrap promoting sustainable commuting with Stanford Medicine Transportation Services contact information.

Inside, you can discover various sustainable transportation programs available to you as a Stanford Medicine staff member such as Clean Air Cash, Pasteur Staff Garage Carpool Program, and the Santa Clara and Campbell Park & Ride programs. There are even tablets available for easy sign-up!

Eligible employees can also come to the Transportation Pop-Up to get a Clipper Card pre-loaded with Caltrain Go Pass, Valley Transportation Authority (VTA) SmartPass, and Alameda-Contra-Costa (AC) Transit EasyPass! These passes are good for unlimited travel anytime on Caltrain, VTA, and AC Transit!

Need help? A Stanford Medicine Transportation Services representative will be available to help with any questions you have.

Don't forget to grab some freebies like tumblers, water bottles, and other swag while you're here.

The Transportation Pop-Up space is a testament to Stanford Medicine's commitment to sustainability and improving staff benefits by promoting initiatives that will cut costs and time spent driving alone.
