Gear Up for Bike Month

May is Bike Month!

Get ready for bike month and Bike to Wherever Day with some biking workshops put on by the Silicon Valley Bike Coalition.

You will learn the rules of the road, the gear, and planning your route. This is a great introductory workshop for people who are new to bicycling or interested in learning more about how to enjoy a safe and comfortable ride for commuting or fun in all seasons. Experienced riders are encouraged to come and share their tips with fellow riders and, hopefully, walk away with new knowledge as well.
