Chapter 4: Parking Rules and Enforcement

Section 4.1: Parking Rules

All vehicles parking in areas managed by Stanford Medicine Transportation Services must abide by any posted signs or painted indications defining a parking type, including, but not limited to:

I. Parking Permits and Parking Accounts

- a. Parking Permits and parking accounts are assigned to an individual employee and may not be shared, transferred, sold, or used by another person
- b. Carpool and Vanpool may have additional allowances for group permits
- c. Misuse of a parking permit or parking account may result in permit revocation, loss of parking privileges, invoicing, or other enforcement actions
- d. Employees with three (3) or more unpaid parking invoices may be ineligible to purchase additional parking permits until outstanding parking invoices have been resolved.

II. Parking Permit Cancellation/Return Policy

- a. Daily parking reservations may be cancelled by 12AM the day of the reservation
 - i. Cancellation must be initiated by the employee directly through the Stanford Medicine parking app.
 1. Employees will not receive a monetary refund when canceling a parking permit. Any eligible refund amount will be issued as a parking credit and applied to the employee's parking account for use toward future parking purchases. The available credit balance can be viewed in the "My Wallet" section of the Stanford Medicine Parking App.
 2. Parking credits may be used for permit purchases at any Stanford Medicine parking location, regardless of where the original credit was generated.
 - ii. Parking reservations should be purchased as needed and cancelled before the next day
 - iii. After hours and weekend entry is badge access only. Request entry to a garage or lot after 4:00 PM and anytime on weekends, please submit badge access request through here: Service Catalog Item - AskSHC

Chapter 6: Alternative Transportation Options for Staff

For the latest information about Transportation Demand Management Programs, visit

<https://stanfordmedicinetransportation.org/Alternatives/>

Section 6.1: Lyft for Business

- I. What is a “Lyft Business / corporate account?” It’s a transportation program designed to provide an efficient and stress-free commute from business to business or business to business meeting location. This guidance extends to all Stanford Medicine employees who are eligible to participate in the Lyft Corporate program upon approval by their direct supervisor/manager.
 - i. Please be advised; the Lyft corporate account is for business-related trips only and cannot be used for commute trips between place of residence & place of business.
 - ii. All rides taken under the Lyft Corporate Program must be business related and should not be submitted as a reimbursement through the SHC Concur Travel and Expense (T&E) system.
 - iii. The Lyft corporate account is strictly for business use only. Which means anticipated travel from office / professional work-site locations to other professional business locations. This program’ intended use is not for traveling from a place of residence to the work environment or from the business location back to a designated place of residence /or home.

VIII. SHC Lyft Procedure

- a. Access Request to the SHC Lyft Corporate Program
 - i. SHC Employees must request access to the SHC Lyft Corporate Program through the SHC ServiceNow portal under Access Request
 1. Click on “Request Services”
 2. In the Categories box, select “Access”
 3. Select “Other Access” and write “Lyft for Business” in the Notes/Comments section
 4. Enter your business justification and submit the form
- b. Approval for access to the SHC Lyft Corporate Program
 - i. Upon submission of the access request in the SHC ServiceNow portal, SHC supervisors/managers will receive an email notification to review and approve the Lyft Corporate Program requests from their direct reports/employees
 - ii. Once an employee is approved to access the SHC Lyft Corporate Program, all rides taken by the employee will be automatically paid for by SHC without any additional approvals
- c. Activating the SHC Lyft Corporate Program:
 - i. SHC Employees must activate the SHC Lyft Corporate Program by following the activation steps below:
 1. Once an employee’s manager approved an employee’s access request to the SHC Lyft Corporate Program, it will take 48 hours for Lyft to process the employee’s account
 2. Employees will receive an email invitation with activation steps from Lyft. The email will include steps for downloading the Lyft Application from the Apple Application Store or Android Google Store

3. Verification steps will include inputting the employee's phone number and verification code (sent to an employee's phone via text message)
- d. Using the SHC Lyft Corporate Program
 - i. When booking a Lyft ride in the Lyft app, select if each trip is a business or personal trip using the purple highlight on the payment screen on the bottom left
- e. For more information about the SHC Lyft for Business program, view the flyer here:
<http://stanfordmedicinetransportation.org/SHC-Lyft>

Section 6.8: Bicycle Programs

I. Bicycle Equipment and Operation

- a. Every person operating a bicycle on Stanford Medicine property has all the responsibilities applicable to the operator of a vehicle and is subject to all sections applicable under Section 21200 of the CVC. "Bicycle" also refers to motorized electric bicycles and motorized scooters.
- b. In consideration of being permitted to ride a bicycle on the Stanford campus, every person operating a bicycle on Stanford Medicine property agrees to be bound by the provisions in this Code, including the provisions relating to the cutting of bicycle locks and impounding of bicycles stored in violation of this Code.
- c. All bicycles operated on Stanford Medicine property shall be equipped in accordance with the CVC Section 21201, including but not limited to reflectors (front, rear and side), and a white light visible from the front during hours of darkness.
- d. All bicycles operated on Stanford Medicine property are subject to the provisions of the CVC Santa Clara County Ordinances, or any other city or county Ordinances applicable to the location where the property is located. Vehicle Code, City and County Ordinance sections applicable to the operation of bicycles also include but are not limited to those which pertain to safe speed, yielding, right-of-way, equipment, stop signs, and traffic signals and markings.
- e. No person shall operate a bicycle:
 - i. In violation of the CVC, City or County ordinance applicable to the location where the bicycle is being operated
 - ii. On any pedestrian/sidewalk path, ramp, or location, such as a promenade or patio, where signs are posted indicating that bicycle riding is prohibited
 - iii. On any sidewalk or path where there is an adjacent, parallel roadway or bicycle path; such sidewalk or path need not be posted
 - iv. On any ramp established or designed for the use of persons with disabilities.
 - v. On any landscaped area. For this Section, a landscaped area shall be defined as any unpaved area that has been planted with grass, trees, or shrubbery or which has been graded or improved for purposes other than use by vehicular traffic, including undeveloped fields and agricultural areas
 - vi. On any pedestrian corridor or in an arcade
 - vii. Inside any campus, hospital building, and/or parking garage

II. Bicycle Parking Locations and Regulations

- a. Bicycles and/or scooters shall be parked on Stanford Medicine property only in areas specifically designed by the presence of racks or other devices designed for bicycle/scooter parking or when designated by the posting of signs indicating the space as a bicycle/scooter parking area
- b. Bicycle Operations
 - i. No vehicle shall be operated, stopped, left standing, or parked within a Pedestrian Zone or any other area not designated for the operation or parking of vehicles. Bicycles or scooters shall not obstruct pathways/walkways, railings, doorways, or ramps intended for use by pedestrians or people with disabilities
- c. Blocking Traffic
 - i. No bicycle or scooter shall be parked or remain to block or impede the normal flow of pedestrian, bike, or vehicular traffic

d. Blocking building entrances or exits is prohibited

- i. No person shall park or leave a bicycle or scooter to block or impede normal entrance to or exit from any building on Hospital property, including railings, ramps, stairs, curb cuts, or entranceways

e. Red Zones and Fire Lanes

- i. No bicycle or scooter shall be parked or remain in any area adjacent to a curb or cement device that is painted red, or any other posted fire lane

f. Locking to Unauthorized Objects or Fixtures

- i. No bicycle or scooter shall be chained or otherwise locked, or attached to any handrail, tree, shrubbery, door, signpost, lamp, pole, fence, furniture, or other object not designed or designated for the purpose of securing bicycles/scooters

g. Bicycles are not permitted inside hospital buildings

- i. No bicycle shall be parked in any lobby, hallway, or room unless said area is specifically designated for bicycle parking

III. Enforcement

- a. Employees of the Transportation Services department have the authority to enforce provisions relating to stopping, standing, and parking on Hospital property

IV. Abatement of Abandoned Bicycles

- a. Bicycles shall be parked only in designated areas on campus. Improperly parked bicycles may be removed, impounded, and stored by the Transportation & Grounds departments

b. Unattended Bicycles

- i. If a bicycle remains unattended, it may be tagged as abandoned with a warning notice. If the bicycle is not removed within fourteen days from the time the notice was attached, Transportation & Grounds will impound and store the bicycle for 90 days
- ii. Transportation & Grounds shall not be liable to the owner of the bicycle or the security device for the cost of the repair or replacement or for any damages to the bicycle or security device at the time the device is removed

c. Removal of Locks and Locking Devices

- i. Locks or locking devices that remain on parking racks, bicycle lockers, or parking devices not securing a bicycle, or remain attached to any handrail, tree, shrubbery, door, pole, post, fence, or other object not maintained or designated for the purpose of security bicycles may be removed by authorized Transportation & Grounds personnel. These personnel and the hospital shall not be liable to the owner of the security device for the cost of repair or replacement of such securing device or any damage to the bicycle.

d. Parking Time Limits

- i. Bicycle parking racks and cages shall be used for the short-term parking of bicycles and scooters only. Overnight parking is prohibited, except when staff are working overnight, or when visitors are staying overnight in the hospital. No bicycle shall be parked for any period of time in excess of the posted time limit.

e. Temporary “No Parking” Signs (for Bicycles)

- i. Transportation & Grounds has the authority erect or post temporary “No Parking” signs when necessary. No bicycle shall be parked or remain in violation of such temporary restrictions.

- ii. Bicycles, scooters, or other wheeled devices operated or parked in violation of this code are subject to fines, immobilization, and/or impounding

V. Bike Repairs and Shop

Chapter 8: Stanford Medicine Transportation Services – Privacy Standard

Introduction

Stanford Medicine Transportation Services collects and uses information from users of its parking and transportation facilities in order to operate, manage, and improve transportation services. Protecting the privacy of staff, patients, visitors, contractors, and other users of Stanford Medicine parking and transportation facilities is an important responsibility and one that Stanford Medicine takes seriously.

This Privacy Standard describes how Stanford Medicine Transportation Services collects, uses, stores, maintains, shares, retains, and protects information associated with parking and transportation operations, including license plate recognition technology.

This Privacy Standard applies to parking facilities, transportation services, websites, mobile applications, and systems that are managed or operated by Stanford Medicine Transportation Services. This Privacy Standard does not apply to information practices of third parties, including service providers, public agencies, Stanford University departments, or other organizations that may maintain their own privacy policies.

Official Custodian

The official custodian of Transportation Services parking and license plate recognition data is the Senior Director of Transportation Services & Exterior Management, or their designated representative.

The official custodian is responsible for implementation of this Privacy Standard and for maintaining appropriate operational, administrative, technical, and physical safeguards for protected information.

Data Provided to and Collected by Transportation Services

Stanford Medicine Transportation Services collects information necessary to administer parking, transportation, and related operational programs.

Type of Data	When Collected	How Transportation Services Uses This Data
First and last name	When purchasing or obtaining parking access, permits, services, or transportation benefits	To verify identity, administer permits and transportation programs, and communicate regarding services
Email address and phone number	When purchasing parking, enrolling in programs, submitting requests, or receiving transportation services	To provide operational communications, parking notifications, account management, and transportation updates

Vehicle information, including license plate number	When registered by a user or collected through License Plate Recognition (LPR) technology	To validate parking authorization, administer parking programs, monitor utilization, and enforce parking regulations
Parking transaction information	During parking reservations, permit purchases, validations, and parking activity	To administer parking operations, billing, customer service, and planning functions
Transportation program participation information	When enrolling in transportation programs or benefits	To administer transportation services, incentives, and related programs

License Plate Recognition (LPR) Technology

Stanford Medicine Transportation Services utilizes License Plate Recognition (LPR) technology at certain parking facilities for parking operations, parking management, parking enforcement, safety, and customer service purposes.

LPR technology uses stationary cameras, mobile devices, handheld devices, or other approved equipment to capture and process vehicle license plate information. License plates are visible in public view and are scanned to determine parking authorization and support parking operations.

LPR technology may be used in parking lots, garages, controlled-access facilities, roadways, and other locations managed by Stanford Medicine Transportation Services.

Stanford University may also utilize LPR technology in facilities that it owns or manages. Information collected and maintained by Stanford University is governed by Stanford University policies and procedures.

Authorized Purposes for Collection and Use

License plate and parking-related information may be collected, maintained, and used only for authorized transportation and parking purposes, including:

- Managing parking access and parking operations.
- Verifying permit eligibility and permit validity.
- Administering parking reservations and transportation programs.

- Monitoring parking facility occupancy and utilization.
- Supporting customer service and dispute resolution.
- Administering parking enforcement activities.
- Supporting safety, operational, and security needs related to parking facilities.
- Planning future transportation and parking services.
- Evaluating transportation demand management programs.
- Complying with applicable laws, regulations, policies, permits, and contractual requirements.

Transportation Services does not use license plate information for unrelated commercial marketing purposes.

Authorized Access

Access to identifiable parking and LPR information is limited to individuals with a legitimate business need to perform their assigned responsibilities.

Authorized users may include:

- Transportation Services leadership.
- Parking operations personnel.
- Parking enforcement personnel.
- Transportation Services administrative personnel.
- Information technology and cybersecurity personnel supporting Transportation Services systems.
- Authorized vendor personnel supporting Transportation Services operations.
- Other Stanford Medicine personnel approved by the official custodian for a legitimate operational purpose.

Access privileges shall be limited to the minimum level necessary to perform assigned responsibilities.

Training Requirements

Employees, contractors, temporary workers, vendors, and other authorized users who access identifiable parking or LPR information shall receive appropriate training regarding:

- Privacy and confidentiality obligations.
- Information security requirements.
- Appropriate system usage.
- Incident reporting procedures.

- Applicable laws, regulations, and organizational policies governing the use of parking and LPR information.

Authorized users may be required to complete periodic refresher training.

Monitoring and Accountability

Transportation Services utilizes technical and administrative controls to promote accountability and appropriate use of parking and LPR information.

Access to systems containing identifiable parking or LPR information requires individual user credentials where practical.

Transportation Services may maintain records regarding access to LPR information, including:

- Date and time of access.
- User account utilized.
- Information accessed.
- Purpose for access.
- Associated operational activity when applicable.

Transportation Services may periodically review system access, user activity, and operational practices to help ensure compliance with this Privacy Standard.

Data Sharing and Disclosure

Stanford Medicine Transportation Services does not sell identifiable parking or LPR information.

Information may be disclosed when reasonably necessary for authorized business purposes, including:

- Administration of parking and transportation programs.
- Operation and support of Transportation Services systems.
- Services provided by approved vendors working on behalf of Stanford Medicine.
- Coordination with Stanford University Transportation Services where operationally necessary.
- Compliance with legal obligations, court orders, subpoenas, investigations, or other lawful requests.

Any recipient receiving identifiable information is expected to protect such information consistent with applicable contractual, legal, and organizational requirements.

Aggregated, anonymized, or de-identified information may be used and shared for research, planning, reporting, utilization analysis, program evaluation, and operational improvement purposes.

Data Accuracy and Correction

Transportation Services takes reasonable measures to maintain accurate parking and LPR information.

Reasonable measures may include:

- Routine operational reviews.
- Review of parking disputes and appeals.
- Investigation of reported inaccuracies.
- Correction of confirmed data errors when appropriate.

Individuals who believe that parking-related information has been recorded incorrectly may contact Transportation Services for review.

Data Retention and Destruction

Transportation Services retains parking and LPR information only for as long as reasonably necessary to support operational, legal, financial, safety, audit, records management, or business requirements.

Retention periods may vary based on:

- Operational needs.
- Active investigations.
- Billing or invoice disputes.
- Legal holds.
- Litigation requirements.
- Contractual obligations.
- Applicable records retention schedules.

When information is no longer required, Transportation Services will take reasonable measures to securely delete, destroy, anonymize, or archive information in accordance with applicable policies and procedures.

Information Security

Stanford Medicine Transportation Services implements reasonable administrative, technical, operational, and physical safeguards to protect parking and LPR information from unauthorized access, use, disclosure, modification, destruction, or loss.

Safeguards may include:

- Access controls.
- User authentication.
- Role-based permissions.

- Audit logging.
- Vendor security requirements.
- Encryption where appropriate.
- Secure storage practices.
- Incident response procedures.

Transportation Services periodically evaluates security measures and may update practices as technologies and operational requirements evolve.

Changes to this Privacy Standard

This Privacy Standard may be revised periodically to reflect changes in operations, technology, legal requirements, or organizational practices.

Any updates become effective upon publication of a revised version of the Stanford Medicine Transportation Services Code or related Transportation Services materials.
